

Warmth

Jesus' love keeps me warm, inside and out.

The Warmth of Jesus' Love

"Let me in, let me in!" cried Rachel.

"Me, too," said Brett as he pushed and prodded his way between the folds of Daddy's big, blue coat. They were waiting for Mommy to finish her shopping, and they were bored. When Daddy opened his coat and wrapped it around Rachel for a few seconds, Brett and Rachel thought it would make a fun game.

"Are you nice and warm in there?" laughed Daddy as Rachel and Brett both squirmed against him.

Brett peeked out for a moment and said, "This is our house. It's all warm and safe in here."

Brett and Rachel stayed inside Daddy's coat the whole time Mommy was shopping. They were very happy to play their game while Daddy stood still, snuggling them close.

Brett and Rachel liked being inside Daddy's coat. Up against Daddy, with his big coat wrapped around them, they felt safe. In the same way, Jesus' love can make you feel safe and warm. His arms are always wrapped around you, keeping you warm with His love and caring.

Your Turn

1. Can you think of a game that you made up when you were bored?
2. Whose love keeps you safe and warm?

Prayer

Jesus, thank You for always making me feel safe and warm when I think of You.
Amen.
